WHY CHRISTIANS SHOULD VOTE

“Arise, shine, for your light has come,
and the glory of the Lord rises upon you.”

Isaiah 60:1

In every election, the officials and issues on our ballots profoundly impact our nation, our state, and our neighborhoods.

The outcome of each race shapes:

- the quality of our schools,
- the freedom of our local businesses,
- the strength of our families,
- the safety of our children,
- the protection of the unborn, and
- the economic health of our communities.

As Christians, we can love the people God has placed around us with our votes. When biblical principles guide how we select the laws and candidates that will govern us, we shine the light and glory of the Lord into the public square.

In this world, the Lord calls us to “seek the welfare of the city where I have sent you into exile” (Jer. 29:7a). While voting is not the only way we seek the peace and prosperity of our communities, it is a vital piece of the puzzle.

It also is a practical outworking of the beautiful reciprocity of Jeremiah’s message: “for in its welfare you will find your welfare” (Jer. 29:7b). We do not live in a vacuum. When our communities thrive, our families thrive. When local systems are just and fair, everyone benefits.

We operate from a place of security and hope, not fear. Because our ultimate hope is anchored in God’s sovereignty, we can approach the ballot box with a spirit of constructive engagement, seeking justice, mercy, and truth.

The results of November’s election will have a major impact on issues that Christians care deeply about. Now is not the time for apathy. Now is time for the Body of Christ to Arise and Vote.

This election season, pray deliberately and thoroughly research the candidates and issues on your ballot at VoteForOhio.org. Then, vote intentionally out of a profound, Christ-like love for the country, state, and cities we call home and the people we call neighbors.
