

Annual Fall School Book Fair

LCA is excited to announce that we are offering a book fair through the I:55 Book Fair Company!

The I:55 Book Fair Vision:

to partner with schools, churches, and organizations in proclaiming the name of Jesus Christ. We are passionate about raising up a generation of inspired readers. Our name comes from Isaiah 55. This chapter encompasses all we strive to do, knowing that nothing is impossible with God.

What does supporting the LCA Book Fair accomplish?

- Inspires a love for reading and literacy
- Builds your child's personal library
- Blesses your child's teacher by building a classroom library
- Benefits all LCA students by increasing reading opportunities

Visit the I:55 Book Fair!!

Where: the School Library-upstairs in the Lincoln Building

When: September 22-26

Hours: Monday-Wednesday 8am-4pm, Thursday 8am-5pm, Friday Noon-8pm

Your child's classroom will visit the library throughout the week and will create their own personal "wishlist" for your added convenience.

Additionally, please visit (and share) our LCA Landing Page where you may order online and support our school:
